

Hello and Welcome to the 2022 Port Washington Farmers Market!

My name is Jennifer Sapiro, and I am excited to be the new Market Manager, working alongside Kristina Tadeo, the Executive Director of Port Main Street. Port Main Street is a non-profit organization that works to support the historic downtown district in Port Washington, including running the Farmers Market.

Thank you for your interest in the Farmers Market. If you are a returning vendor, we'd like to welcome you back and also express our appreciation for all that you do to help make our market a profitable and fun place to be. If you're joining us for the first time, we'd like to welcome you to our family of hard-working, friendly vendors. You can count on us to do everything we can to help you get established so that you can successfully market your products to our ever-growing base of loyal customers.

The 2022 season is sure to be a great one, as we have some exciting new additions. We are happy to say that we are extending the Farmers Market to go through the end of October, allowing us once again to participate in the Halloween festivities. The Fall Street Festival will run again this year, giving vendors a chance to extend the sales day with thousands of visitors strolling through downtown. We have created a new Facebook page for the Farmers Market, as well as a new website. These platforms will be used throughout the year to promote business and share news. Please check them out:

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at any time. I am looking forward to working with you and getting to know you over the season.
